Description

Revival's 530 X Rider Bowrider at Coorparoo Marine.... It's true…SIZE really does matter. Coming in at a garage-friendly 5.3m (or under 6m on a trailer with a swing-away draw bar) the fun-sized R530 X-Rider is a rare find in a market where boats are getting bigger, but new home lots are rapidly shrinking. But don't for a moment think that downsizing your Revival means compromising on functionality or ride.

Package and bonus features included in the package price:
